

The following is a reference model describing the conceptual framework for the grammar of the Standard Health Record, up to the application of the record at the health organization level.

